

Kismet News

Hello,

We thought it would be nice to share some news and give everyone an update on Kismet, as we have been part of Kismet now for just over 3 months.

Firstly, we'd like to welcome Ann & Dean to Kismet who have joined us and will be working part time in the park. They'll be easy to spot in our blue shirts, so please say hello & make them feel welcome.

Thank you for your patience with the water last week, after our pump went for a swim during the peak of the floods. As the river goes down, there will likely be a fair old mess on the river flats to clean up, so we'd ask that you take care if you venture on down to the river. Sadly, it looks like the old tree truck seat has been washed away. Let's hope it is hasn't gone too far & we can get it back in situ soon.

As you know the identification survey is well underway. There is still plenty of work to be done back in the office by the surveyors and we will let you know when we have the final survey back.

The function room is now back and open, with our first function held on Saturday night, a 50th birthday party. It was great to see kids riding around on their bikes, playing tennis, basketball, volleyball and generally having fun. Saturday morning saw a few ladies doing "sip & pilates" on the grassed area behind the motel, whilst the BBQ was well used over the weekend.

Many of you would have seen the carpark has been re-done with fresh road base. We have plans to get the gravel roads redone throughout the park during the start of 2023. Darren did manage to get over to the start of the entrance road for the permanent side and get rid of the potholes for now. It's only a temporary fix and his recommendation is to drive slowly over this section otherwise the potholes will re-appear again quickly before he can return and redo the roads and roll them to provide a long term fix.

Lastly, several people have suggested that we name the roads of Kismet. I'm sure everyone knows "Crackatinny Lane". Kerry Rogers (the original owner of Kismet Riverside Lodge) dropped in a week or so ago and in their honour will name the entrance road "Rogers Road". Kerry also said that the road from 65-70 was know as "Red Gum Road". Outside of that, all the other street names are up for grabs. So please get your suggestions in to us and we will announce the street names at our Christmas party on the 19th December. There will be a prize for the winning suggestions.

Kind regards,
Craig & Kerryn
